

To Whom It May Concern,

Disclaimer Comedy booked MRSOE! to perform at Lexington Avenue Brewery (LAB) in Asheville, NC, on Tues., Oct. 9, 2012. I can say without reservation that we plan to book MRSOE! again. The show was great, the marketing was superb, and producer Neil Bansil to date is by far the most professional and organized performer/producer we've worked with at our monthly series at LAB (or, for that matter, any other venue partner). Neil knows exactly what he's doing, and he brings a very strong lineup to the stage. The show is extremely marketable, and Neil is very much on top of the marketing. We'll happily host MRSOE! again.

Thank You.
